10 The admission process for international residents

11 Applicant Notice

- If it is confirmed that the applicant was admitted through fraudulent means, such as the submission of forged documents, or if the academic qualifications do not meet the admission requirements upon verification after enrollment, both the admission and enrollment will be canceled.
- If the total number of applicants and enrolled students for a specific department is below a certain threshold (including both regular and irregular students), the admission process for that department may be canceled.
- Dual applications for two or more departments (majors) are not permitted.
- If the contact information (address, phone number, email) provided on the admission application is incorrect or if the applicant becomes unreachable, resulting in the inability to notify the applicant, the admission will be canceled. No objections can be raised under any circumstances.

- e. The documents submitted during the application process cannot be corrected, and they will not be returned to the applicant.
- f. Any matters not specified in the guidelines will follow the regulations set by Daegu University Graduate School, the Ministry of Education (Higher Education Act), and the Ministry of Justice (Immigration Control Act). If the visa issuance is denied by the Ministry of Justice after admission, the admission will be automatically canceled.
- g. Applicants who submit a certificate of expected graduation must submit the official graduation certificate before enrollment. Failure to do so will result in cancellation of admission.
- h. International students who are admitted must enroll in insurance recognized by Daegu University.
- i. For further details, please contact the Daegu University Graduate School at +82-53-850-5037 or 5038, or refer to the university's graduate school website (<http://grad.daegu.ac.kr>).
